Overview: Moul Falls is one of the most popular waterfalls in Wells Gray Provincial Park, offering a unique opportunity to walk behind the cascading water. This moderate hike takes you through a lush forest trail to the impressive falls, making it a must-visit for nature enthusiasts and photographers alike.

Drive Description: From Spahats Creek Resort, drive back to the main entrance and turn left (west) onto Spahats Creek Road for 500 meters (0.3 miles). Turn right (north) onto Clearwater Valley Road and continue for 9.5 km (5.9 miles). Look for the parking area for Moul Falls on your left, clearly marked with a trailhead sign.

Hike Description:

1. Begin at the Moul Falls parking area and follow the well-marked trail through a dense forest.
2. The trail is relatively flat initially, with some gradual inclines as you approach the falls.
3. After approximately 2.75 km (1.7 miles), you will arrive at Moul Falls. The powerful cascade and surrounding spray create a cool and refreshing environment.
4. For the adventurous, take the short path down to the base of the falls and experience the unique thrill of walking behind the curtain of water.
5. Return via the same trail for a total distance of 5.5 km (3.4 miles).

Tips:

- Footwear: Wear sturdy shoes with good grip, especially if planning to walk behind the falls, as the area can be slippery.
- Gear: Bring a rain jacket or waterproof gear to stay dry near the falls.
- Snacks & Water: Pack enough water and snacks, as there are no facilities along the trail.
- Photography: Early mornings or evenings provide the best lighting for capturing the beauty of the falls.

Summary: Moul Falls is a highlight of Wells Gray Provincial Park, offering an adventurous and scenic hike with the unique experience of walking behind a waterfall. Its proximity to Spahats Creek Resort makes it an accessible and memorable outing for visitors of all ages.
