Overview: Spahats Falls, located in Wells Gray Provincial Park, is a must-see attraction offering breathtaking views of a stunning waterfall plunging over volcanic rock into a deep canyon. This easy and family-friendly outing is perfect for all ages and provides a glimpse into the geological wonders of the area. Spahats Falls is set to be updated in spring 2025 with new trails and an enhanced viewing platform.

Drive Description: From Spahats Creek Resort, drive back to the main entrance and turn left (west) onto Spahats Creek Road for 600 meters (0.3 miles). Turn left (south) onto Clearwater Valley Road and drive 1000 meters (0.6 miles). Turn right into the Spahats Falls Day Use Area, then turn left again after 100 meters (0.06 miles) into the parking lot.

Hike Description:

1. From the parking lot, follow the well-maintained trail through a short stretch of forest.
2. The trail leads to an observation platform offering panoramic views of Spahats Falls and the canyon below.
3. The total walking distance is only 200 meters (0.12 miles) each way, making this an easy, accessible hike for all visitors.

Tips:

- The viewing platform is fenced and safe, but keep an eye on children as the canyon's edge is steep.
- Early morning or late afternoon visits provide the best lighting for photography.
- Wear comfortable walking shoes and consider bringing a light jacket, as the viewing area can be breezy.

Summary: Spahats Falls is a quick and rewarding stop that highlights the natural beauty of Wells Gray Provincial Park. Its proximity to Spahats Creek Resort makes it a convenient and unmissable adventure for visitors.
